MONUMENTS.

The White Bronze Monument,

beautiful in design, appropriate in color, never tarnishes, chips or cracks, and science in its long search for something that would stand the frost of this climate for monumental purposes has at last found it in the White Bronze. It fills every wish. It is a beauty to behold. It will perpetuate the memory of loved ones, that future generations may bestow those little acts of kindness upon the graves after we have gone to our reward.

Brickbat Flirtation.

Mollie C., of Westport, writes, asking for a simple code of flirtation. She says she is familiar with the fan and handkerchief systems, and wants to know if there is no other. Here, Mollie, is a simple code—the brickbat flirtation:
Picking up brick from street—I am waiting for you.
Carrying brick in right hand—I am watching you.
Carrying brick in left hand—I feel secure.
Biting corner of brick—I love you.
Rubbing brick on nose—Write to me.
Wrapping brick in handkerchief—I doubt you.
Throwing brick through window—Beware of the neighbors.
Balancing brick on chin—We are watched.
Striking back of head with brick—I am married.
Scratching ear with brick—Don't speak to me.
Throwing brick at a stranger's head—I want to make an impression.
Putting brick in pocket we are safe.

This code has the advantage of being certain to attract attention, and bricks are always to be found, even when your fan is at home and your handkerchief is being laundered.—Baltimore American.

The Youngest Teacher.

Miss Kitty Marcella Parker, a little 8-year-old girl of Smithburg, N. J., has the honor of being the youngest school teacher in America. She has for some time cherished an ambition to become a school teacher, and one day last week she was afforded the opportunity to gratify this desire. Miss Stout, instructor of Kitty's class, did not appear on Monday morning. After waiting some time for the teachers to come, Kitty announced that she would take charge of the class, which she did.

Order was kept and the lessons recited as usual. The regular routine of the school-room was gone through without a mistake and Kitty, much to her delight, continued in charge of the class for some days until Miss Stout returned.

A Profitable Opportunity.
The Sunday Telegraph, 140 West Forty-second street, New York, will send one month's supply for ten cents. This is 150 per cent off the usual rate. What the paper is may be judged by the following from the Cleveland Plain Dealer:

"There is certainly no publication that attracts readers more easily than the New York Sunday Telegraph, and this agreeable state of affairs is due to its clever knack of giving the reader just the kind of news he wants and presenting it in just the manner he likes to read it. The Sunday Telegraph's popularity is enhanced by special features not to be found in any other newspaper, and by a supplement printed in colors on fine book paper, the illustrations of which are equal to those of the best magazines."

War makes money plentiful and men scarce.

A hearty appetite does not always indicate a healthy condition. It is not the quantity of food which is eaten but the quantity which is assimilated, which determines the actual value of the food consumed. If the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition cannot convert the food into nourishment, and into blood, then the food is an injury instead of a benefit. For all disorders of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition, there is a certain remedy in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It removes clogging obstructions. It strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves, enriches the blood and builds up the body. It is a flesh-forming, muscle making preparation, making firm flesh instead of flabby fat. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or intoxicant of any kind, and is equally free from opium, cocaine and all narcotics.
